“One at A Time” by Kyle Idleman. TIME magazine ranked the most influential people in history. Spoiler alert: Jesus was number one. Jesus focused on people one at a time and had influence without Instagram. Learn with us how each of us can influence others like Jesus, one person at a time. Mixed study group facilitated by Blondie Crabtree & co-teachers LeeAnn Lovell, Sara Nolan & Brian Lawcock in the Wesley Room. Books available for $10.

Get Out of Your Head by author Jennie Allen takes groups on a study in Philippians, inspiring and equipping us to transform our emotions, our outlook and even our circumstances by taking control of our thoughts. When we submit our minds to Christ, the promises and goodness of God flood our lives in remarkable ways. It starts in your head. And from there, the possibilities are endless. This is a six-session class. Mixed study group co-led by Pastors Andrew & Mignelis in the senior pastor’s office, Room 12.

Free of Me, by Sharon Hodde Miller. Women’s Group. RightNow Media video study why life is better when it’s not about you. Handouts provided No book needed. Women’s study group co-led by Kim Kelsey & Emily Sevits in Room 105.

Youth & Children:

Youth (6th-12) Join teachers Arpita Singh and Gary Davis in the loft upstairs above the fellowship hall/gym on Wednesday nights using curriculum to promote learning about Jesus and developing personal and spiritual growth. This is a discussion oriented class.

Kids for Christ (K-5th) Teachers- Kristina Skibo & Erin Clouse, Room 106 . We will use The Gospel Project curriculum to reinforce the current week’s lesson on Wednesday nights. Activities during this time include arts and crafts, games, music, fun and fellowship.

Nursery:
